

Declaration of Interests form

Member of the group/employee/ governing body member/committee or sub-committee member (including committees and sub-committees of the governing body) declaration form: financial and other interests

This form is required to be completed in accordance with the CCG's Constitution and section 140 of The National Health Service Act 2006.

Notes:

- Each CCG must make arrangements to ensure that the persons mentioned on this form declare any interest which may lead to a conflict with the interests of the CCG and the public for whom they commission services in relation to a decision to be made by the CCG.
- A declaration must be made of any interest likely to lead to a conflict or potential conflict as soon as the individual becomes aware of it, and within 28 days.
- If any assistance is required in order to complete this form, then the individual should contact the Board Secretary, Joanne Taylor on 462028 or email joanne.taylor14@nhs.net
- The completed signed form should be sent to the Board Secretary, details as above.
- Any changes to interests declared must also be registered within 28 days by completing and submitting a new declaration form.
- The register will be published on the CCG's website.
- Any individual – and in particular members and employees of the CCG - must provide sufficient detail of the interest, and the potential for conflict with the interests of the CCG and the public for whom they commission services, to enable a lay person to understand the implications and why the interest needs to be registered.
- If there is any doubt as to whether or not a conflict of interests could arise, a declaration of the interest must be made.

Interests that must be declared (whether such interests are those of the individual themselves or of a family member, close friend or other acquaintance of the individual) include:

- roles and responsibilities held within member practices;
- directorships, including non-executive directorships, held in private companies or PLCs;
- ownership or part-ownership of private companies, businesses or consultancies likely or possibly seeking to do business with the CCG;
- shareholdings (more than 5%) of companies in the field of health and social care;
- a position of authority in an organisation (e.g. charity or voluntary organisation) in the field of health and social care;
- any connection with a voluntary or other organisation contracting for NHS services;
- research funding/grants that may be received by the individual or any organisation in which they have an interest or role;
- any other role or relationship which the public could perceive would impair or otherwise influence the individual's judgement or actions in their role within the CCG.

Declaration of interests form for CCG members and employees

Name:
Position within, or relationship with, the CCG (or NHS England in the event of joint committees):
Detail of interests held (complete all that are applicable):
Type of Interest* *See reverse of form for details	Description of Interest (including for indirect Interests, details of the relationship with the person who has the interest)	Date interest relates From & To		Actions to be taken to mitigate risk (to be agreed with line manager or a senior CCG manager)

The information submitted will be held by the CCG for personnel or other reasons specified on this form and to comply with the organisation's policies. This information may be held in both manual and electronic form in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and Data Protection Act 2018. Information may be disclosed to third parties in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and published in registers that the CCG holds.

I declare that the information I have given on this form is correct and complete and I will not create a conflict of interest between my NHS duties/employment and an external body/organisation or my personal business interests. I consent to the disclosure of information on this form to be reviewed by the CCG's Auditors and understand that the form may also be reviewed for the purpose of fraud prevention and detection by NHS Anti-Fraud Specialists. I agree to submit further notices in order to bring up to date information given in this notice and will and I will declare any interest I acquire after the date of this notice as soon as practicable and no later than 28 days after the interest arises. I am aware that if I do not make full, accurate and timely declarations then civil, criminal, or internal disciplinary action may result.

Types of interest

Type of Interest	Description
Financial Interests	This is where an individual may get direct financial benefits from the consequences of a commissioning decision. This could, for example, include being: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A director, including a non-executive director, or senior employee in a private company or public limited company or other organisation which is doing, or which is likely, or possibly seeking to do, business with health or social care organisations; • A shareholder (or similar owner interests), a partner or owner of a private or not-for-profit company, business, partnership or consultancy which is doing, or which is likely, or possibly seeking to do, business with health or social care organisations. • A management consultant for a provider; • In secondary employment (see paragraph 56 to 57); • In receipt of secondary income from a provider; • In receipt of a grant from a provider; • In receipt of any payments (for example honoraria, one off payments, day allowances or travel or subsistence) from a provider • In receipt of research funding, including grants that may be received by the individual or any organisation in which they have an interest or role; and • Having a pension that is funded by a provider (where the value of this might be affected by the success or failure of the provider).
Non-Financial Professional Interests	This is where an individual may obtain a non-financial professional benefit from the consequences of a commissioning decision, such as increasing their professional reputation or status or promoting their professional career. This may, for example, include situations where the individual is: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • An advocate for a particular group of patients; • A GP with special interests e.g., in dermatology, acupuncture etc. • A member of a particular specialist professional body (although routine GP membership of the RCGP, BMA or a medical defence organisation would not usually by itself amount to an interest which needed to be declared); • An advisor for Care Quality Commission (CQC) or National Institute for Health and Care Excellence (NICE); • A medical researcher.
Non-Financial Personal Interests	This is where an individual may benefit personally in ways which are not directly linked to their professional career and do not give rise to a direct financial benefit. This could include, for example, where the individual is: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A voluntary sector champion for a provider; • A volunteer for a provider; • A member of a voluntary sector board or has any other position of authority in or connection with a voluntary sector organisation; • Suffering from a particular condition requiring individually funded treatment; • A member of a lobby or pressure groups with an interest in health.
Indirect Interests	This is where an individual has a close association with an individual who has a financial interest, a non-financial professional interest or a non-financial personal interest in a commissioning decision (as those categories are described above). For example, this should include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Spouse / partner; • Close relative e.g., parent, grandparent, child, grandchild or sibling; • Close friend; • Business partner.